Questions posted for answer on 16th March 1950

259. [11] Sri. D. Ponniah: Will the Hon'ble Chief Minister be pleased to answer the following question:—

(a) how many families among those residing for the past about 80 years in the Dharmapuram Madom (Chidamparapuram) in Karayankuzhi, Marunkoor pakuthy, Agasteeswaram Taluk, were evicted up-to 21st Mithunam 1124;

(b) whether any alternative place for their residence was given before they were evicted. Is it not a wrong done by Gouernment in evicting these persons suddenly while there is a law preventing eviction;

(c) are the Government aware that an amount of Rs. 584 got by auctioning 48 palmyrahs, 1 tamarind, 30 Thespesia 4 accesia, 2 drumstic and 1 Margosa grown by the residents in the above madom lands was taken by Government? To whom should that amount belong? Whether to the residents there or to the Government? Is it a fact that stay orders were issued twice;

(d) are the Government aware that the persons evicted belong to the London Mission and that they are at present living in cow sheds and in huts built on the streets? Is this the benefits derived from the eviction law?

Sri. N. Kunjuraman:

(a) Four families residing for about twenty years in the Eravi-Puthur Pakuthy (not Marunkoor) have been evicted up-to 21st Mithunam 1124.
